

House Resolution No. 1933

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives hold in high esteem those Show-Me State educators who have dedicated their time and energy to ensuring that today's students garner the knowledge, skills, and experiences necessary to become lifelong learners and future societal leaders; and

Whereas, Pete Frazier has attained considerable distinction as a social studies teacher at Central High School in Cape Girardeau; and

Whereas, on May 5, 2005, Pete Frazier will enhance his already impressive record of achievement when he is officially recognized as an Educator of the Year by the Cape Girardeau Chamber of Commerce at its annual banquet in Drury Lodge; and

Whereas, an educator for eight years, Pete Frazier began his career teaching sociology, law, world history, and drivers education and working as an assistant baseball coach at Twin Rivers High School in 1998 and taught at Sikeston High School before joining the staff at Central High School; and

Whereas, Pete Frazier is universally praised by his peers for his strong commitment to students, his ability to work with student-to-student relationships, and the respect he receives in the classroom; and

Whereas, in light of his teaching excellence, Pete Frazier will receive the Crystal Apple Award, $500 cash, and a commemorative video:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-third General Assembly, join unanimously to applaud the well-deserved selection of Pete Frazier as an Educator of the Year by the Cape Girardeau Chamber of Commerce and to convey to him this legislative body's most heartfelt best wishes for continued personal and professional success for many more years to come; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution in honor of Pete Frazier of Central High School in Cape Girardeau.
